

Chipped a tooth, lost a filling or crown while traveling internationally? No need to worry, because through MetLife's International Dental Travel Assistance program¹ you can get a referral to a local dentist for immediate care until you can see your regular dentist.

Convenience

This service is available 24/7 with access to international dental providers in over 200 countries. With expense before 2023.

