encouraged to provide the Board with broadest possible exposure to University. In addition to the foregoing, this may be accomplished by presentations by members of the university community at the meetings of the Board or its committees, as well as at meetings or informational sessions held in a variety of university facilities and locations, both on and off the main campus.

6. This section shall not be interpreted to discourage the free discussion by University and Foundation personnel, faculty, alumni, and students regarding public or personal matters with Board of Visitors members. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the gathering or attendance of two or more Board members with members of the University community at any place or function where no part of the purpose of such gathering or attendance is the discussion of public business, and such gathering or attendance was not called or prearranged with any purpose of discussing or transacting any public business.
