ODUMUNC Registration Form

Welcome from the Secretary-General & Director-General

Esteemed Delegates, Faculty and Guests,

On the behalf of the ODUMUNC Secretariat, we are enthused to welcome you all to the 46th session of Old Dominion University's Model United Nations Conference, ODUMUNC 46.

After two grueling years on Zoom, we are so excited to be live, back at the Norfolk Sheraton Waterside Hotel! ODUMUNC 46 will follow ODU Covid policy. Currently, masks and testing are optional. We'll keep you updated.

ODU is the first public university in the United States to implement the Every Campus a Refuge (ECAR) program, a global program to provide support and resources for refugees. As the first public institution to participate, we thought a discussion of the experiences of refugees significant, and we chose the

Early registration

For Faculty Sponsors

Issue briefs: Provide background information on committees and topics. They are available on the conference website in September.

Training guide: The greatly praised ODUMUNC training manual, Winning UN Simulations, covers everything delegates need to know as they prepare. At http://www.odu.edu/content/dam/odu/offices/mun/odumunc-delegate-guide-winning-un-simulations.pdf

Support services: The ODU Model UN Society is ready to help your students prepare. Our staff can come to regional schools for classroom training, over zoom, or you can have your class meet with us at ODU.

The Faculty Forum

ODUMUNC is delighted to welcome faculty back to our Faculty Forum, a one-day seminar on international affairs with maximum classroom relevance. This year's Forum, Saturday 18 February, features professors from ODU and neighboring universities speaking on Foreign Policy in the Biden Years: great power conflict, migration, climate change, nuclear weapons, arms control, trans-Atlantic and China relations. ODU offers Continuing Education credit for the Faculty Forum.
