

Regular admission in a graduate degree program (Education, Higher Education, Sociology, Humanities, Women's Studies, International Studies, Psychology, Criminology, Health Sciences, Counseling, Public Health) at ODU with good academic standing, maintenance of a full course load of student enrollment during the term of their appointment, and a 3.0 or higher GPA is required. Dropping below the required GPA or reducing one's course load below full-time can be grounds for dismissal.

- GA will obtain in-depth knowledge of community/University agencies that serve as referral resources for students and others.
- GA will gain knowledge about sexual, relationships, and interpersonal violence through coordination of peer education program.
- GA will become familiar with university sexual assault policy and procedures.
- GA will learn about program development/execution, marketing, curriculum development and assessment.
- GA will obtain experience working with committees and teams.
- GA will develop an awareness of sexual, relationship, and interpersonal violence issues through researching and reporting data.
- GA will enhance their communication skills with diverse student populations.

Annual stipend of $18,500 will be paid over fall ($7,500), spring ($7,500), and summer ($3,500) semesters. Out-of-state students will receive a tuition waiver equivalent to in-state tuition.

The length of the graduate assistantship is 12 months.

